Mandatory Condition # 2: The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.Supporting Evidence: Jerome Williams was arrested for city assault on March 20, 2015, in violation of mandatory condition #2 of his supervised release.

According to the Spokane police report dated March 20, 2015, Mr. Williams approached the victim, and the group of Girl Scouts, in an attempt to retrieve his daughter from the group. The person in charge of the group, the victim, told the police officer that Mr. Williams approached the group yelling for his daughter to come with him. She stated that she did not know Mr. Williams and stood up to stop him, as Mr. Williams' daughter voiced that she did not want to go with him because he appeared to be intoxicated. The victim stayed in between Mr. Williams and his daughter and directed him to wait until police arrived. The victim then stated that Mr. Williams became more agitated and grabbed the victim by the front of her shirt and shoved her to the side before grabbing the child by her arm and taking her away.
